

Endgame Plot Threads

Before Planetfall draws to a close, we'd like to make sure that plots people are interested in are brought to a satisfying conclusion. To help the ref team plan for this, players are invited to list below those open plot threads they are interested in seeing dealt with, and which characters have an interest in these.

While the refs cannot guarantee that everything listed here will be resolved, nor that the listed characters will be able to play these missions, we will do our best to accommodate what we can.

Description	Interested Characters
Find the other gateways in the system, and generally poke at the Pentagonal civilisation and where the heck they came from	Delicate Harmony
Return to Endeavour, find out what's happened to it, and what the legacy of Warded Path's sacrifice is	Mostly Tamsin, but Stellar Glory would be interested
Hive IV - what's up with the scattered bits of shipheart that Endeavour told us about?	Stellar Glory
The Client - who are they, what's the shipheart they work for, what's their agenda, etc	Stellar Glory
Scrum+, want to get more horribly addicted and explore the realm of kaiju-based combat drugs!	Heightened Serendipity
The schism in the Elegy	Heightened Serendipity
