

Red Nine

Pronouns: She/Her

Background / Bio

Born on Ace's World, Red Nine has always been aware of the role of fortune in her life. A well placed bet here, a lucky streak in cards there, stumbling into the right person in the right casino at the right time... it got her around. Eventually, though, Nine became increasingly aware that fortune wasn't the only force in her life: she sought out the Sect of the Divine on Ace's World and they introduced her to the light: that while Vyixian Luck was always at play, there were those favoured few on Ace's World who had the attention of the original Ship Heart: Ace's World. From then on, Nine knew that she was doubly blessed: once by her own familial fortune, and once by the Ship Heart of her home.

Nine now works to further her power and her blessing: she believes that perhaps in Ship Hearts not only lies the opportunity for blessing, but an opportunity to take control of the very force of Luck itself.
